MOST IMPORTANT / TOP PRIORITY

OFFICE-ORDER FOR ANTI-RAGGING SQUADS

Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has totally banned ragging in any form and has also issued guidelines in exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by article 32 and article 142 of constitution of India. In this connection, Government of Uttar Pradesh has issued various Government orders and MHRD has also issued directives to curb ragging. Subsequently GBTU, Lucknow has also issued various letters in this regard. Scanned copies of letter no. GBTU/Reg. off./AK/2011/27216-27829 dated August 12, 2011; AICTE notification F.No.37-3/Legal/AICTE/2009 dated July 01, 2009 "Prevention and prohibition of Ragging in technical Institutions, Universities including Deemed to be Universities imparting technical education" and G. O. No. 438/SOLAH-1-2011-250/96 dated July 21, 2011 are available on the Institute web site. In compliance of above provisions, the Anti-Ragging Squads are being constituted starting from 30/07/2018 for a period of about three months as per the schedules are enclosed.

1. All the Anti-Ragging Squad leader/members shall have to report in the control room (warden room) situated on the ground floor of C. V. Raman Hostel and register at least 05 minutes before the scheduled time. At the end of duty time slot, the Anti-Ragging Squad will write the report in the register. The register will be with the security guard in the control room.
2. It shall be the duty of the Anti-Ragging Squad to make surprise raids in hostels, and other places in and around Institute vulnerable to incidents and having the potential for ragging.
3. It shall also be the duty of the Anti-Ragging Squad to conduct an on-the-spot enquiry into any incidents of ragging referred to it by the Head of the institution or any member of the faculty or any member of the staff or any student or any parent or guardian or any employee of a service provider or by any other person, as the case may be; and the enquiry report along with recommendation shall be submitted to the Chief Proctor for action. Anti-Ragging Squad shall conduct such enquiry observing a fair and transparent procedure and the principles of natural justice and after giving adequate opportunity to the student or students accused of ragging and other witnesses to place before it the facts, documents and views concerning the incidents of ragging, and considerations such other relevant information as may be required.
4. In case of any ragging incidence, the Anti-Ragging Squad leader will also submit a report to Chief Proctor separately who will make arrangements for forwarding of such reports to the director and shall keep a copy with himself/ herself.
5. No leave application shall normally be entertained during the duty period. In case of exceptional requirement of leave, the same should be submitted stating reasons to Chief Proctor with specific recommendation of respective Anti-Ragging Squad leaders and it will be sanctioned by the Director.
6. The security guard in control room will be responsible for safe custody of all records of control room and will inform concerned authorities immediately about any incident/problem noticed in the control room.
